

139A.33 Determination of source.

The local board or the department shall use every available means to determine the source and spread of any infectious case of sexually transmitted disease or infection which is reported.

2000 Acts, ch 1066, §29